

On your desktop, create separate folders for your JV and Varsity games. This allows you to set up games ahead of time. You can have your varsity game ready to go before the end of the JV game.

Games (except for the starting lineups) can even be set up before you arrive at the arena.